This is a read me file for the website UdanKhatola.

For using the website, on the homepage click on the book now button to book your flight. You will be now taken to the login page. Now input your login credentials and hit login.

Now, a popup will occur saying you are logged in successfully. You will now be able to enter the details for your flight travel.

Next, click on "check availability" to see the available flights according to your needs. Bangalore to Mumbai flights will be shown with all their important information. Again, an alert will occur showing you that the prices are for limited period.

After choosing your flight, you'll be taken to the final payment page. Enter your credit card details and click enter to book your flight in 5 simple steps.

 A pop-up showing not to refresh will occur. Click ok, now click on make payment to go to the homepage and press enter to receive an email regarding your booking and bills.
